

MICH 2000 ballistic helmet -

Multicam

Product link: Click here to view product online

The MICH 2000 ballistic helmet in multicam from PGD body armor, also known as a modular integrated communications helmet is made to protect you against today's most demanding ballistic threats. The MICH 2000 is manufactured with Twaron aramid from Teijin, which gives an helmet with an excellent capability of stopping ballistic threats as well as fragments; NIJ IIIA up to a .44 magnum and furthermore it is also V50 tested according to STANAG 2920 at 680 m/s. The helmet has a 4 point suspension system that can be adjusted to the user and a harness system that consist of 7-soft foam pads, which offers comfort and protection from blunt force trauma.

The MICH 2000 ballistic helmet series from PGD body armor is made to resist the most demanding ballistic threats, making this a very popular helmet amongst military, maritime, private security, police and in high risk areas.

For more information

www.pgd-bodyarmor.com

Phone: +45 61274857 - E-mail: jonas@protectiongroup.dk

QUALITY
A CHOICE OF LIFE

MICH 2000 ballistic helmet -

Multicam

Product link: Click here to view product online

PROTECTION GROUP

It is possible to upgrade the helmet with front shroud, rail system and velcro at your request.

Product specifications

- NIJ IIIA against .44 magnum and .357 SIG
- V50 tested at 680 m/s according to STANAG 2920
- EN397 certified
- Size S, M, L and XL
- 1.2-1.45 kilos (Depending on the size).
- 100% Twaron aramid from Teijin

Color options

Ballistic helmet test

Ballistic helmet test against .44 magnum, .357 SIG, 9mm and 40 S&W.

For more information

www.pgd-bodyarmor.com

Phone: +45 61274857 - E-mail: jonas@protectiongroup.dk

QUALITY
A CHOICE OF LIFE